

Envisioning the Roman emperor in speech and word in late antiquity

25th July, 9am-5pm Australian Hearing Hub, Lecture Theatre 1, Level 1

SPEAKERS

Jan Willem Drijvers (Groningen) (Keynote)

“Pan. Lat. 12 (9): Constantine and Christianity”

Byron Waldron (Sydney)

“Diocles the Timid: De Mortibus Persecutorum 18-19 as a Juncture of Invective”

Caillan Davenport (Macquarie)

“Giving voice to the late Roman emperor: Pan.Lat. 9(4) in context”

Eva Anagnostou-Laoutides (Macquarie)

“A Victory Divinely Promised: Aeneas and Constantine in Pan.Lat.12 (9)”

Alan Ross (Southampton)

“Constantius and Julian: envisioning emperors between history and panegyric”

Paul Roche (Sydney)

“Staring at the son: Strategies of praise in Claudian’s panegyrics on the third and fourth consulships of Honorius”

Meaghan McEvoy (Macquarie)

“Orations on the first generation of Theodosian imperial women: Flaccilla, Pulcheria, Serena and Maria”

RESPONDENTS

Peter Edwell (Macquarie)

Phoebe Garrett (Australian National University)

Tom Hillard (Macquarie)

Chris Mallan (University of Western Australia)

Brian Croke (Sydney/Macquarie)

Chris Malone (Sydney)

The full program can be found at:

<https://www.mq.edu.au/research/research-centres-groups-and-facilities/resilient-societies/centres/ancient-cultures-research-centre/>

Organised by Dr Meaghan McEvoy for the MQ Visiting Fellowship of Assoc. Prof. Jan Willem Drijvers (Groningen), with the support of the MQ Faculty of Arts, the MQ Ancient Cultures Research Centre and the Australasian Society for Classical Studies.

Attendance is free but registration is essential. Please register by 4th July by emailing meaghan.mcevoy@mq.edu.au.